

Feb. 27–March 2, 2012: Kaleidoscope Winter Institute, L.A.

COURSE V

Holy Currencies

Emergent Conversations on Money and Sustainable Ministry

This workshop will examine how money as a currency of exchange has become the principle valuing system of our life, work and ministry. We will name money as a principality and power that seeks to be a god and steers us away from the God of truth and grace. In order to recall money to its original calling, to serve and support human community interchange, we will engage participants in dialogue about other kinds of currencies that support the Kingdom of God:

- ✦ Currency of time and place,
- ✦ Currency of gracious leadership,
- ✦ Currency of relationship,
- ✦ Currency of truth, and
- ✦ Currency of wellness.

How do these currencies connect with each other and with money leading to sustainable ministries? We will take our clues from the Bible and from the revolutionizing world of “freeeconomic” and “freemium” financing sparked by the innovation of the internet and the World Wide Web. We will move toward utilizing what we called “GracEconomic” to create sustainable missional ministries.
